Dear families and friends,

I hope you are well and are enjoying the glimmers of sun to let us know spring is on its way!

The children have been working very hard in school and the teachers are looking forward to telling you all about their progress at parents evening the week after half term.

To find out more about what your child is learning, please head to our website and click on their year group in the curriculum tab.

Our school values

After the half term break, we will be launching our new school values with the children. These embody the characteristics and beliefs we aim for all of our Woodland pupils to be guided by both during and beyond their time with us. Children will be awarded golden coins for displaying our school values, which they will pool together to earn a whole school reward.

The school values we have chosen are
