Anti-Bullying Week & Odd Socks Day 2026

Dear Parents and Carers,

As part of our celebration of Anti-Bullying Week, we will be taking part in Odd Socks Day on Monday 16th November.

We would like to invite all children to come to school wearing their usual uniform, along with a pair of odd socks. This fun and colourful event is a great way to celebrate what makes us all unique and to highlight the importance of kindness, respect and inclusion.

Odd Socks Day helps children understand that everyone is different and that our differences should be valued and celebrated. It is also an opportunity to reinforce the key messages of Anti-Bullying Week: encouraging children to speak out, support one another and create a school community where everyone feels safe, respected and welcomed.

There is no cost to take part, and we encourage children to wear the brightest, boldest and most mismatched socks they can find!

Thank you for your continued support. We look forward to seeing lots of colourful socks on the day.

Kind regards,

Simon Harris
